Dear Sir,

The International Human Rights day is observed all over the world every year on 10th December to commemorate the adoption of Universal Declaration of Human Rights by the UN General Assembly by organizing special functions.

2. The National Human Rights Commission celebrated the Human Rights Day this year on 10th December, 2012 by holding a special function in New Delhi which was graced by Shri Pranab Mukherjee, President of India and many national and international dignitaries. Similarly, the State Human Rights Commissions had also organized special functions.

3. The Kerala State Human Rights Commission while observing the day this year has undertaken a very significant initiative, by issuing a notification on 5/12/2012, to get all State Government Departments, educational institutions and other organizations to observe the International Human Rights Day by taking a pledge for safeguarding human rights.

4. The Commission has directed to forward the notification issued by the Government of Kerala to other States and State Human Rights Commissions. Accordingly, a copy of the notification along with the Human Rights Day Pledge (English version) is enclosed.

5. I shall be grateful, if you could kindly issue necessary instructions to all concerned in your State on the lines undertaken by the Kerala State Human Rights Commission. In this way we can take one more step forward for inculcating the spirit of humanity.
